Mr. HENRY C. BOWEN, who exclaims "perjury! perjury!" over the Beecher-Tilton case, was one of the communicants at Mr. Beecher's church on Sunday last.

VICE PRESIDENT WILSON has been invited to become the guest of Hon. B. Gratz Brown during his stay in St. Louis. Thus Governor Brown's house will become the temporary home of a Vice President, notwithstanding the defeat of its owner in 1872.

INDIANAPOLIS is to-day enjoying the luxury of a municipal election. Party lines have been drawn, and the canvass has been unusually exciting. Hon. John Caven is the Republican candidate for Mayor, against Mayor Mitchell, the present Democratic incumbent. A clerk, treasurer, marshal, assessor, and one alderman in each of the thirty wards, are also to be elected.

No sooner has the latter disposed of Vasquez, the bold California bandit, than a successor quite worthy of him presents himself to fill his place. His name is Chavez, and he is now reported to be going up and down the State, well mounted and armed to the teeth, gathering some of the booty which Vasquez left behind him. Recently Chavez and two of his band rode up to a quiet farm house near San Bernardino. Halting there they asked for food for their horses. This having been supplied, they dismounted entered the house, and demanded to be served with supper.

They sat down to the table, talked Spanish, and sipped whisky until all three, springing simultaneously to their feet, and with cocked revolvers presented to the heads of their two male hosts, ordered them to throw up their hands. Both men were then tied, and the robbers ransacked the place. They robbed gallantly—no abuse, no violence, no rough overhauling in search of plunder. While two were searching for money the third took two Spencer rifles and a shot gun from the saddles, placing them near the door. On being implored not to hurt the women, Chavez replied: "No hurt women; money all we want."

They remained in the house about an hour. On departing, Chavez saluted his victims with, "Adios; you catch me, may be." In the wilds of Inyo, splendidly mounted and armed to the teeth, their capture seems hopeless.

We understand that our Congressman the Hon. Joseph G. Cannon, contemplating making Danville his future residence, and with a view to that end, has recently purchased a lot of ground with a frontage of 254 feet on the base side of Vermilion street, from Messrs. Carey & McHugh for $3,000. Mr. Cannon will this season build thereon a handsome two-story residence at a cost approximating $8,000 when finished.—Danville Times.

REVISED STATUTES.—The last installment of the revised statutes were yesterday received from the bindery by the Secretary of State. Of the 15,000 ordered published, 12,000 have been already distributed, about one-half gratuitously to the officers entitled to them. The balance are in the hands of County Clerks for sale at $2 a copy, and a large number have been already sold.—Springfield Journal.

A SINGING MOUSE.

Dr. M. V. B. Harwood, the reporter of the Journal and Gazette, at Anna, Ill., relates the following interesting and pleasing incident, for the truth of which, it will be seen, that he pledges his "sacred honor":

A MUSICAL MOUSE.—We have in our house a rare one, unfledged and quipped—a veritable singing mouse. It sings its little song with all the musical trills and quavers of a canary, and with nearly as many of the "variations" as a mocking bird. Bearly in the winter a mouse began to frequent one of our bird cages. He climbed up the window curtain and gained access easily. He became so tame and so importunate that he was finally considered a pet instead of a pest. So he made his home with the bird and got a new song in his mouth. We could hardly believe it at first, but when in the long winter evenings while the bird cage was covered with paper to exclude the light, we heard a canary song in low, soft tones floating out from the cage like the faint, exquisite music of a dream, or as if the ghost of some departed canary had come back to interview its mate, we were led to a solution of the mystery, one that we least expected. One evening we carefully lifted one corner of the paper from the bird cage, and there sat our pet mouse, singing as never mouse sang before. Since then he is our household fairy, singing every evening and at intervals through the day, gaily as the cricket on the earth. Since the warm weather his favorite cage has been removed to another room and it is pitiful to see him hunting for his feathered teacher. Climbing up the curtain to the place where the cage hung he will look around a moment, then return to the window and perch upon the cross rail of the cage, pour out his little song in a song as musical as that of the dying swan. Then he steps down and out in a little while is heard again in his favorite niche near the clock. "To all of which we pledge our sacred honor."

THE embryonic grasshopper is having a serious time in Minnesota. Numerous reports are received showing that the severe winter, though bearing hard on the sufferers from last year's devastations of the pest, has at the same time proved a great blessing in that it has frozen up the myriads of eggs deposited by the insects that the power to germinate has been lost. Another enemy of the hopper has made its appearance in the shape of an entirely new species of worm, which is said to live and thrive on these eggs, and which is improving its brief period of existence by waxing fat on this peculiar food. This last fact is only another exemplification of the eternal fitness of things, and fully sustaining the poet's theory, that "all flesh have other flesh to bite 'em, and so on, ad infinitum."

St. Louis, May 3.—The steamer St. Luke, bound for Leavenworth, Kan., St. Louis, struck Pier No. 3 of St. Charles bridge, twenty-five miles from here, about 10 o'clock last night, and subsequently sank in fifteen feet of water. The boat was owned by the Missouri River Packet Company, and valued at $30,000; insured for $17,000 in Cincinnati and Wheeling offices.

Some additional particulars regarding the loss of the steamer St. Luke are learned from Captain Keith and passengers who came down from St. Charles by rail to-day. The night was dark, and the lights on the bridge very dim. About thirty feet on the harbor side of the boat was crushed in by the collision with the pier, and part of her machinery was torn away. She made water very rapidly, but floated down about two miles, struck a bar in the middle of the river and sank to her bottom. Passengers rushed from their berths in great terror and but all those not lost were gathered on the hurricane roof, where they remained till daylight, when only in their night clothes, when the ferry boat came down and took them ashore. Five or six persons are supposed to have been knocked overboard and drowned at the first crash, but this is not definitely known. Those whose loss is certain are Wm. Brooks, fireman, of St. Louis; Tom Donnelly, deck sweeper; Mrs. John Dignan and two children, who took passage at Kansas City, one male passenger, name unknown, and three deck passengers, name also unknown.

About one hundred souls were on the steamer, most of whom, outside the officers and crew, were deck passengers, no list of whose names was kept by the clerk. The St. Luke had about 100 tons of freight, which, with the boat, will be a total loss.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Wall street was this morning startled by the report that John F. Tracy, President of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company, and identified as Director with many other western roads, notably the Chicago & Northwestern, was dying. Mr. Tracy was yesterday attacked by a stroke of paralysis at his hotel in this city, the Gilsey House, and to-day is very low. It is the third attack he has had, and it is more serious because complicated with Bright's disease of the kidneys. Mr. Tracy has for many years been a leading spirit in Wall street, and his illness has a decided effect on the stock market. In its early decline, the market was strong, the prices advancing from one-eighth to three and a half per cent, the latter for Panama; but on the announcement of the critical condition of Mr. Tracy, the market became heavy, and prices have fallen since from one-half to two per cent, the latter for Panama. It is not known what Mr. Tracy's interest in the market is, but it is not believed to be very large.

RECRUITS FOR PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

NEW YORK, May 3.—In the Beecher-Tilton trial, this morning, when the jury were called, Mrs. Tilton rose, and addressing the court said: "Judge Neilson, I have a communication which I would beg your honor to read aloud before the opening of the proceedings." The note was passed to Mr. Everts, who after reading it, said that this matter would be considered. Morris then called a witness for rebuttal. Albert Guigbauf, who made the picture of the Roseal procession for Leaves of the Journal, testified that the picture represented about two blocks of the procession, and if Tilton was in that part of it he didn't see him.

HENRY Ous Fox, of the Independent, testified. He saw Tilton walking arm in arm with Mr. Swinson; saw General Ryan in a carriage with a woman, afterward said to be Mrs. Woodhull.

Wm. Terrence, confederator, saw Tilton in the procession a considerable distance from the women.

Lawrence S. Kane also testified that Tilton was not in the company of the women.

T. H. Banks, Marshal of the procession, said he drove off the grounds in company with Mrs. Woodhull, Miss Chaffin, and Col. Blood, and several officers testified to the same effect.

After recess, Tilton entered. Florence Tilton was present to-day. It is generally understood she will testify in rebuttal, especially if Mrs. Tilton is allowed to take the stand.

Henry McManis was called and testified. He marched a few paces behind Tilton, from Fourteenth street to Fifth avenue, in the Communist procession. Swinson was with Tilton. Albert Martin, Superintendent of the Sunday school mission of Dr. Storrs' church, testified to seeing Essie Turner, or Mrs. Ovington's sister, come to-day who went before the committee. Tracy was with her from 2 o'clock till 4:30 in the back parlor. He heard them talking; could not understand what was said.

Mr. Everts asked what testimony this was meant to rebut. Morris said, Tracy and Essie Turner, and read the testimony where Essie said she had about ten minutes conversation.

After some dispute, in which Shearman declared this was another interview, witness proceeded.

He remained at tea at Mrs. Ovington's, and took Essie Turner around to Mr. Storrs' in the evening, that she might testify.

Cross-examined. Witness said he had lodged in Tilton's house about a year before that; was now lodging there since January; stayed at meal at Mrs. Ovington's occasionally; when he first came, saw Tracy in the parlor and Mrs. Tilton called him up stairs where they remained half an hour; didn't look at the clock; had tea that evening about 6 o'clock; Tracy left about an hour before.

Franklin Woodruff was recalled, and testified that before his interview in Moulton's study, had had two other interviews with Tracy, in one of which he (Woodruff) said Tilton's charge against Beecher was adultery. He told Tracy Beecher had advanced money to Tilton's family; did not recollect that Tilton said to Tracy that his wife was not guilty of adultery with Beecher; didn't remember hearing Tilton say Beecher was an adulterer, nor Tracy replying, "With your wife" nor Tilton replying, "No, with another woman, or other woman."

NEW YORK, May 3.—The Tribune to-morrow will say it was evidently a surprise to all but one or two of Beecher's lawyers, when Mrs. Tilton addressed her position to Judge Neilson. The scene was most dramatic—her husband, sitting ten feet in front of her, half turned in his seat when he heard his wife's voice, but did not look at her. Both plaintiff's and defendant's counsel turned and looked full upon her. Judge Neilson said the matter was one to which he thought he ought to give the utmost deliberation. Despite the request of Mrs. Tilton, he must consider this confidential. Both counsel consented, and Mrs. Tilton insisted that it might be made public.

Mrs. Ovington stated in visit, that Mrs. Tilton was overcome with excitement; that her action in court had been entirely unexpected by friends who accompanied her. Tracy stated that Mrs. Tilton's action was without advice from the counsel, who knew nothing of her intention. She had handed Everts a copy of the letter—the contents of which will probably be made known to-morrow. It is understood it is an appeal on Mrs. Tilton's part to the court to be heard in defense of her own character, a protest against the injustice of the failure of either side to call her, and a solemn and pathetic assertion of her innocence of adultery.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Judge Neilson refused to intimate what were the contents of Mrs. Tilton's note, and said it should not in any event be made known till to-morrow morning, and then only with consent of counsel. It is understood the letter refers to the subject of Mrs. T. giving testimony; quotes from a letter of Tilton to his wife, heretofore unpublished, and concludes with the expression of willingness to abide by any decision which the court in its discretion, may enter as to her becoming a witness. It is reported she protests strongly against excluding her evidence, and asserts her innocence.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Mr. Beecher yesterday received into Plymouth Church 105 new members, seventy-five on profession of faith and thirty by letter from sister churches. After baptizing twenty-six of the new members, Mr. Beecher announced that the children could be baptized in the church on Sunday next. Henry C. Bowen and his family were among the communicants. Between the administering of the bread and wine Mr. Beecher stood on the floor almost hidden behind a vase of lilies and prayed.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The Evening Post says that the steamer City of Hartford, while passing through the East River this morning, ran into and upset a scow, on which were Capt. Costa, his wife and four children, the eldest seventeen years old. The four children were drowned.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 3.—A fire at East Minneapolis destroyed a portion of the lumber in Farnham & Lovejoy's lumber yard, also five dwelling houses. Total loss $200,000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE RUSH TO KANSAS AND COLORADO.

The indications are that the rush to Kansas and Colorado will be greater than ever in 1874. The shortest way to reach the Far West is through St. Louis, the great Mississippi Valley City, of over 300,000 inhabitants, and thence west over the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short line, which reaches all the great land grants in the West, and runs six fast Express trains, two more than any other road, between the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers. This road, in the last two years, has expended over two million dollars, besides earnings, in extraordinary improvement of roadway, in relaying its line with best quality of new steel and iron rails, on broad, new ties, and in passenger equipment, having substituted for ordinary cars a new rolling chair coaches, with every appliance for comfort and safety, being elegantly carpeted and fitted with dressing rooms, with toilet conveniences for ladies, gentlemen and families traveling with children, free of any extra charge. Any ticket agent selling through tickets to the West will furnish tickets by this excellent route through St. Louis, over the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short Line, the best and shortest to Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, California and the Great West, it being the only line running through cars between St. Louis and Omaha. Runaway and Smash-up.—This morning a farmer was driving into town, and when near Dr. Stapp's corner his horses took fright. The sudden start of the team threw the driver backward upon the bottom of his wagon bed, and the horses taking advantage of his comparatively helpless condition, ran at the top of their speed until they came to the store of Stoy & Bishop. Here they collided with a wagon hitched in front of the store, breaking it quite badly, and also injuring the wagon drawn by the runaway team somewhat. The horses by this collision were somewhat checked, in their speed, but were not brought to a full halt. They passed on south, clearing only by an inch the delivery wagon of E. B. Pratt & Son, which was standing in front of the store door. At East Main street the team turned to the east, and the driver having by this time picked himself up and regained possession of the reins, soon brought his horses to a standstill, without any apparent injury to the animals other than a big fright.

SOME OF THE DIFFICULTIES OF AN OFFICE-HOLDER.

The poundmaster a few days since quit carrying the hod, mounted his mustang, and went in search of stray stock. He went all over the township, and returned Sunday without finding anything, mad and disappointed. Suddenly he desisted a flock of sheep in the distance grazing on a common. He hurried to the spot, and after trying his patience and perseverance severely, he finally managed, with the assistance of a couple of boys, to get the sheep all safely housed up in the pound. There he took the trouble to count them, and found he had forty-nine head, besides two horses and four cows. This was certainly a "fat take," and the official sat himself down to rest, well satisfied with his day's work. The flock was taken out yesterday, and the compensation received by him for keeping them over night was sufficient to inflate his portmanteau considerably. Yesterday Davenport received the regular rates from the owners and released all the stock penned up, with the exception of one cow and a horse.

THE DIFFICULTIES with which this doughty official meets in the discharge of his duties are not to be surmised at. Whenever he is seen driving away any stray stock he is called after by the owner with, "stop thief," and a brawl of more or less convenience nearly always follows. Only a day or two ago Davenport was driving off some stock belonging to Fred. Aholtz, which action served to get that gentleman's "Dutch up" and finally compel the poundmaster to relinquish the stock.—The official at once came to one of the city justices and instituted legal proceedings against Aholtz for abuse he had received, and for allowing his stock to run at large in violation of the State law. Davenport says that if he can't have the law to protect him in the discharge of his duties, he will resign his position forever.

SLANDER. The report which some malicious persons put in circulation, that he had been enticed by some of Mrs. Honiker's lackeys to allow that woman's cow to run at large, is a false slander.

Died at Sea.—A little over two weeks ago we announced the departure of Mrs. W. H. Harris of this city, for Europe, whither she went in company with her invalid father, Stillman Will, Esq., of Cleveland, Ohio. The party sailed from New York a week ago last Thursday, in the steamship Stalio, and now comes a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Will at sea. We learn that Mrs. Harris is now on her way home, bringing with her the remains of her father. Her many friends in Decatur will deeply sympathize with her in her bereavement, and all will wish her a safe and speedy return from her mournful journey.

Mr. Will was one of the most prominent business men of Cleveland, and was largely interested in railroad enterprises in the West. He was a man of immense energy, great force of character, and indomitable industry, and he had amassed a large fortune. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Harris of this city, and Mrs. Ellis, of Cleveland.

Masonic.—There will be a special meeting of Beaumont Commandery No. 9, K. T., at their asylum, on Wednesday evening, May 5th, at 7 o'clock, sharp. Work on K. T. Degree. A full attendance requested.

Burglary and Theft.—On Sunday evening, while the family was absent at church, the residence of Rev. Minor T. Chew, living on West Cerro Gordo street, was entered by burglars, and thoroughly ransacked. Five dollars in money were taken, but no goods were stolen. The thieves then went to the barn and took a nice yearling colt, but upon finding out that the animal could not be rode, and would consequently be somewhat troublesome to get away with, the thieves turned him loose, and he has since been recovered, so that all the loss to the family is the five dollars in money.

Explanatory.—The opinion is prevalent among some that the First M. E. Church Excursion, arranged for the 13th inst., was instituted in opposition to the one given by the Monticello people, on April 30th. Such is not the case. The committee was appointed, and correspondence commenced in regard to our train by the 19th of March—quite a while previous to their announcement. For proof of the correctness of this statement reference can be made to N. Harwood, through whom the business was transacted. Our announcement was delayed through the loss of time in effecting our contract, as we did not wish to announce until we had sufficient authority for so doing.

The committee to whom was referred the report of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, embodying certain recommendations, reported against any increase of members in Rescue Hose Co. No. 1, and recommended that the old hose cart and new carriage both remain in charge of Rescue Hose Co. for the present; they also recommended the purchase of two pipes and additional manholes and lifters necessary for new hose carriage, but report adverse to shut-off nozzles. Adjourned to Wednesday evening, May 5th.

POLICE NEWS.

Yesterday afternoon Wm. Valentine and James Dunnivan were taken up before Squire Albert to answer to the charge of disturbance. They both pleaded guilty, and were fined each $3 and costs.

The pair were then asked if they were ready for trial, on charge of fast driving and disturbance. Valentine replied in the affirmative, and at once prepared to make a spirited defense. He questioned all the witnesses and forced from them the admission that they did not see the defendant beat or strike the horse in any way. They also testified that he took no means to prevent his comrades, and therefore was somewhat to blame. After carefully weighing all the evidence in the case, the Squire said $25 and costs would satisfy the claims of justice. This amount being secured Valentine was set at liberty.

Dunnivan preferred rather to have a postponement in his case, while he could get a lawyer and prepare for a desperate defense. His trial was postponed until next Thursday, and he was required to give a bond of $300 for his appearance on that day. He gave security and was released.

Firemen's Ball.—Young America Hook and Ladder Co. will give a ball at Brennenman's Hall, on the evening of May 20th, as a finale to the review and parade which takes place that day.

The Exhibition of Scenery, which was given at the German Methodist Church last night, was a truly beautiful one, and held the closest attention of a crowd of admiring lookers-on. Paintings of the most beautiful scenery in America, Europe, Egypt and Palestine followed one another. Mr. Haid, the manager, giving an interesting lecture explanatory of the numerous scenes, as they passed. Views were given of the Pacific Railroad, the Yosemite Valley, Niagara Falls, and other beautiful scenery on this continent, following which came paintings of noted old castles in England and Germany, together with views on the Rhine. Paintings of Egypt's wonders came next in order.—After this were scenes in Palestine, which were particularly interesting to the members of the Church and Sunday School. The canvases passed for over two hours, never for a moment failing to interest the audience.

We are sorry that the inclemency of the weather kept many at home, and we trust that Mr. Haid will give another similar exhibition before long.

SUII AHEAD.—We mean J. P. Marsh, in the manufacture of custom-made boots. He makes them at a reduction of two dollars from former prices. He also keeps a fine stock of ready-made goods.

The happy couple left on the eastward bound train at 1.30.

SUII AT IT.—If anybody supposes that the disappearance of Geo. Miller, and the subsequent legal proceedings, have in any way interfered with the business of the confectionery at 26 East Main St., let the illusion be at once dispelled. The establishment is still in full blast, manufacturing all kinds of choice candies, feeding the hungry, and sweetening the lives of all who favor the house with their patronage. If you have any doubt about this, "go there yourself" and see how it is.

Every Seven Years, physiologists say, the human body is entirely changed and renewed. Every moment of our lives, every part of our bodies is wearing out and being built up anew of fresh matter. This work is accomplished by the blood, which goes through every part.—But if the blood becomes weak or vitiated, and does not perform its work properly, the system is actually poisoned by the worn out matter clogging the vital organs instead of leaving the body. For dyspepsia, biliousness, kidney, skin and liver troubles, fevers, and all diseases arising from vitiated blood, Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS are a sovereign remedy. [23-d&w1m]

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chills, Fever, Biliousness, Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a pure and safe cure for Fever and Ague, and for Biliousness, and for all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

That which professes to be a cure for these diseases, but which is not, is a dangerous and expensive experiment, and one which is likely to do more harm than good.

FAVORITE HOME REMEDY.

Is eminently a Family Medicine; and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and doctor's bills.

After forty years' trial it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its virtues from the highest medical characters and responsible. Eminent physicians commend it as the best remedy for the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.

THE SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are a bitter

Mr. HENRY C. BOWEN, who exclaims "perjury! perjury!" over the Beecher-Tilton case, was one of the communicants at Mr. Beecher's church on Sunday last.

VICE PRESIDENT WILSON has been invited to become the guest of Hon. B. Gratz Brown during his stay in St. Louis. Thus Governor Brown's house will become the temporary home of a live Vice President, notwithstanding the defeat of its owner in 1872.

INDIANAPOLIS is to-day enjoying the luxury of a municipal election. Party lines have been drawn, and the canvass has been unusually exciting. Hon. John Caven is the Republican candidate for Mayor, against Mayor Mitchell, the present Democratic incumbent. A clerk, treasurer, marshal, assessor, and one alderman in each of the thirteen wards, are also to be elected.

No sooner has the halter disposed of Vasquez, the bold California bandit, than a successor quite worthy of him presents himself to fill his place. His name is Chavez, and he is now reported to be going up and down the State, well mounted and armed to the teeth, gathering some of the booty which Vasquez left behind him. Recently Chavez and two of his band rode up to a quiet farm house near San Bernardino. Halting there they asked for food for their horses. This having been supplied them, they dismounted entered the house, and demanded to be served with supper. They sat down to the table, talked Spanish, and sipped whisky until all three, springing simultaneously to their feet, and with cocked revolvers presented to the heads of their two male hosts, ordered them to throw up their hands. Both men were then tied, and the robbers ransacked the place. They robbed gallantly—no abuse, no violence, no rough overhauling in search of plunder. While two were searching for money the third took two Spencer rifles and a shot gun from the saddles, placing them near the door. On being implored not to hurt the women, Chavez replied: "No hurt women; money all we want."

They remained in the house about an hour. On departing, Chavez saluted his victims with, "Adios; you catch me, may be." In the wilds of Inyo, splendidly mounted and armed to the teeth, their capture seems hopeless.

We understand that our Congressman the Hon. Joseph C. Cannon, contemplating making Danville his future residence, and with a view to that end, has recently purchased a lot of ground with a frontage of 254 feet on the East side of Vermilion street, from Messrs. Carey & McHugh for $3,000. Mr. Cannon will this season build thereon a handsome two-story residence at a cost approximating $8,000 when finished.—Danville Times.

REVISED STATUTES.—The last installment of the revised statutes were yesterday received from the binder by the Secretary of State. Of the 15,000 ordered published, 12,000 have been already distributed, about one-half gratuitously to the officers entitled to them. The balance are in the hands of County Clerks for sale at $2 a copy, and a large number have been already sold.—Springfield Journal.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. Horace Reed left yesterday for a few days' trip through Kansas. He expects to return on Saturday, and be present to fill his pulpit on Sunday next.

Mr. Alexis Montgomery, the "grand duke" formerly of J. J. Davis & Co.'s book store, has accepted a position as clerk in W. C. Armstrong's drug store.

A SINGING MOUSE.

Dr. M. V. B. Harwood, the reporter of the Jonesboro Gazette, at Anna, Ill., relates the following interesting and pleasing incident, for the truth of which, it will be seen, that he pledges his "sacred honor":

A MUSICAL MOUSE.—We have in our house a rara avis, unfeathered and quadruped—a veritable singing mouse. It sings its little song with all the musical trills and quavers of a canary and with nearly as many of the "variations" as a mocking bird. Early in the winter a mouse began to frequent one of our bird cages. He climbed up the window curtain and gained access easily. He became so tame and so impertinent that he was finally considered a pet instead of a pest. So he made his home with the bird and got a new song in his mouth. We could hardly believe it at first, but when in the long winter evenings while the bird cage was covered with paper to exclude the light, we heard a canary song in low, soft tones floating out from the cage like the "faint exquisite music of a dream" or as if the ghost of some departed canary had come back to interview its mate, we were led to a solution of the mystery, one that we least expected. One evening we carefully lifted one corner of the paper from the bird cage, and there sat our pet mouse, singing as never mouse sang before. Since then he is our household fairy, singing every evening and at intervals through the day, gaily as the cricket on the earth. Since the warm weather his favorite cage has been removed to another room and it is pitiful to see him hunting for his feathered teacher. Climbing up the curtain to the place where the cage hung he will look around a moment, then return to the window and perch upon the cross rail of the sash, pour out his little soul in a song as mournful as that of the dying swan. Then he steps down and out and in a little while is heard again in his favorite niche near the clock. "To all of which we pledge our sacred honor."

THE embryonic grasshopper is having a serious time in Minnesota. Numerous reports are received going to show that the soverer winter, though bearing hard on the sufferers from last year's devastations of the pest, has at the same time proved a great blessing in that it has so frozen up the myriads of eggs deposited by the insects that the power to germinate has been lost. Another enemy of the "hopper" has made its appearance in the shape of an entirely new species of worm, which is said to live and thrive on these eggs, and which is improving its brief period of existence by waxing fat on this peculiar fodder. This last fact is only another exemplification of the eternal fitness of things, and fully sustaining the poet's theory, that "all flesh has another flesh to bite 'em, and so on, ad infinitum."

St. Louis, May 3.—The steamer St. Luke, bound from Leavenworth, Kan., to St. Louis, struck Pier No. 3 of St. Charles Bridge, twenty-five miles from here, about 10 o'clock last night, and subsequently sank in fifteen feet of water. The boat was owned by the Missouri River Packet Company, and valued at $30,000; insured for $17,000 in Cincinnati and Wheeling offices.

Some additional particulars regarding the loss of the steamer St. Luke are learned from Captain Keith and passengers who came down from St. Charles by rail to-day. The night was dark, and the lights on the bridge very dim. About thirty feet on the larboard side of the boat was crushed in by the collision with the pier, and part of her machinery was torn away. She made water very rapidly, but floated down about two miles, struck a bar in the middle of the river and sank to her ruin. Passengers rushed from their berths in great terror and ran higher and thither, panic-stricken; but all those not lost were gathered on the hurricane roof, where they remained till daylight, clad only in their night clothes, when the ferry boat came down and took them ashore. Five or six persons are supposed to have been knocked overboard and drowned at the first crash, but this is not definitely known. Those whose loss is certain are Wm. Brooks, fireman, of St. Louis; Tom Donnelly, deck sweeper; Mrs. John Dican and two children, who took passage at Kansas City, one male passenger, name unknown, and three deck passengers, name also unknown. About one hundred souls were on the steamer, most of whom, outside the officers and crew, were deck passengers, no list of whose names was kept by the clerk. The St. Luke had about 100 tons of freight, which, with the boat, will be a total loss.

New York, May 3.—Wall street was this morning startled by the report that John F. Tracy, President of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company, and identified as Director with many other western roads, notably the Chicago & Northwestern, was dying. Mr. Tracy was yesterday attacked by a stroke of paralysis at his hotel in this city, the Gilsey House, and to-day is very low. It is the third attack he has had, and it is more serious because of the complications with Bright's disease of the kidneys. Mr. Tracy has for many years been a leading spirit in Wall street, and his illness has a decided effect on the stock market. In its early dealings the market was strong, the prices advancing from one-eighth to three and a half per cent, the latter for Panama; but on the announcement of the critical condition of Mr. Tracy, the market became heavy, and prices have fallen since from one-half to two per cent, the latter for Panama. It is not known what Mr. Tracy's interest in the market is, but it is not believed to be very large.

RECRUITS FOR PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

New York, May 3.—In the Beecher-Tilton trial, this morning, when the jury were called, Mrs. Tilton rose, and addressing the court, said: "Judge Neilson, I have a communication which I would beg your honor to read aloud before the opening of the proceedings." The note was passed to Mr. Evans, who after reading it, said that this matter would be considered. Morris then called witness for rebuttal. Albert Guigau, who made the picture of the Rosel procession for Leath's Journal, testified that the picture represented about two blocks of the procession, and if Tilton was in that part of it he did not see him.

Henry Otis Fox, of the Independent, testified: He saw Tilton walking arm in arm with Mr. Swinton; saw General Ryan in a carriage with a woman, afterward said to be Mrs. Woodhull.

Wm. Terrence, confectioner, saw Tilton in the procession a considerable distance from the woman.

Lawrence S. Kane also testified that Tilton was not in the company of the woman.

T. H. Bank, Marshal of the procession, said he drove off the grounds in company with Mrs. Woodhull, Miss Chaffin, and Col. Blood, and several others testified to the same effect.

After recess, Tilton entered. Florence Tilton was present to-day. It is generally understood she will testify in rebuttal, especially if Mrs. Tilton is allowed to take the stand.

Henry McManners was called and testified. He marched a few paces behind Tilton, from Fourteenth street to Fifth avenue, in the Communist procession. Swinton was with Tilton. Albert Martin, Superintendent of the Sunday school mission of Dr. Storrs' church, testified to seeing Bessie Turner at Mrs. Ovington's last summer. The day she went before the committee Tracy was with her from 2 o'clock till 4:30 in the back parlor. He heard them talking; could not understand what was said.

Mr. Evans asked what testimony this was meant to rebut. Morris said, Tracy's and Bessie Turner's, and read the testimony where Bessie said she had about ten minutes conversation.

After some dispute, in which Shearman declared this was another interview, witness proceeded.

He remained at tea at Mrs. Ovington's, and took Bessie Turner around to Mr. Storrs' in the evening, that she might testify.

Cross-examined. Witness said he had lodged in Tilton's house about a year before that; was now lodging there since January; stayed at meal at Mrs. Ovington's occasionally; when he first came, saw Tracy in the parlor and Mrs. Tilton called him up stairs where they remained half an hour; didn't look at the clock; had tea that evening about 6 o'clock; Tracy left about an hour before.

Franklin Woodruff was recalled, and testified that before his interview in Moulton's study, had had two other interviews with Tracy, in one of which he (Woodruff) said Tilton's charge against Beecher was adultery. He told Tracy Beecher had advanced money to Tilton's family; did not recollect that Tilton said to Tracy that his wife was not guilty of adultery with Beecher; didn't remember hearing Tilton say Beecher was an adulterer, nor Tracy asking, "With your wife?" nor Tilton replying, "No, with another woman, or other women."

New York, May 3.—The Tribune to-morrow will say it was evidently a surprise to all but one or two of Beecher's lawyers, when Mrs. Tilton addressed her petition to Judge Neilson. The scene was most dramatic—her husband, sitting ten feet in front of her, half turned in his seat when he heard his wife's voice, but did not look at her. Both plaintiff's and defendant's counsel turned and looked full upon her. Judge Neilson said the matter was one to which he thought he ought to give the utmost deliberation. Despite the request of Mrs. Tilton, he must consider this matter in public. Counsel consented, and Mrs. Tilton insisted that it might be made public. Evans was non-committal.

Mrs. Ovington stated to visitors that Mrs. Tilton was overcome with excitement; that her action in court had been entirely unexpected by friends who accompanied her. Tracy stated that Mrs. Tilton's action was without advice from the counsel, who knew nothing of her intention. She had handed Evans a copy of the letter—the contents of which will probably be made known to-morrow. It is understood it is an appeal on Mrs. Tilton's part to the court to be heard in defense of her own character, a protest against the injustice of the failure of either side to call her, and a solemn and pathetic assertion of her innocence of adultery.

New York, May 3.—Judge Neilson refused to intimate what were the contents of Mrs. Tilton's note, and said it should not in any event be made known till to-morrow morning, and then only with consent of counsel. It is understood the letter refers to the subject of Mrs. T. giving testimony; quotes from a letter of Tilton to his wife, heretofore unpublished, and concludes with the expression of willingness to abide by any decision which the court in its discretion, may enter as to her becoming a witness. It is reported she protests strongly against excluding her evidence, and asserts her innocence.

New York, May 3.—Mr. Beecher yesterday received into Plymouth Church 105 new members, seventy-five on profession of faith and thirty by letter from sister churches. After baptizing twenty-six of the new members, Mr. Beecher announced that the children would be baptized in the church on Sunday next. Henry C. Bowen and his family were among the communicants. Between the administering of the bread and wine Mr. Beecher stood on the floor almost hidden behind a vase of lilies and prayed.

New York, May 3.—The Evening Post says that the steamer City of Hartford, while passing through the East River this morning, ran into and upset a scow, on which were Capt. Costa, his wife and four children, the eldest son, fifteen years old. The four children were drowned.

St. Paul, Minn., May 3.—A fire at East Minneapolis destroyed a portion of the lumber in Farnham & Lovjoy's lumber yard, also five dwelling houses. Total loss $90,000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE RUSH TO KANSAS AND COLORADO.

The indications are that the rush to Kansas and Colorado will be greater than over in 1874. The shortest way to reach the Far West is through St. Louis, the great Mississippi-Valley City, of over 450,000 inhabitants, and thence west over the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short Line, which reaches all the great land grants in the West, and runs six fast express trains, two more than any other road between the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers. This road, in the last two years, has expended over two million dollars, besides earnings, in extraordinary improvement of roadway, in relaying its line with best quality of new steel and iron rails, on broad, new ties, and in passenger equipment, having substituted for ordinary cars new rolling chair coaches, with every appliance for comfort and safety, being elegantly carpeted and fitted with dressing rooms, with toilet conveniences for ladies, gentlemen and families traveling with children, free of any extra charge. Any ticket agent selling through tickets to the West will furnish tickets by this excellent route through St. Louis, over the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short Line, the best and shortest to Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, California and the Great West, it being the line running through cars between St. Louis and Omaha. For map, circulars and time-tables address either F. A. Palmer, Indianapolis, Ind., or P. B. Groat, St. Louis, Mo., either of whom will furnish any information desired. [Jan 31w]
